About Us

The association Kamea Meah Films was created to carry the production and distribution of A Quest for Meaning.

The film has been such a success that we've expanded our field of action to include :

- accompanying independent filmmakers in the production and distribution of their documentaries
- organizing seminars and workshops
- organizing alternative film festivals and other events

A QUEST FOR MEANING

Take part of the journey!

Our aim is to empower people and inspire change by gathering organizations and citizens around a positive vision of the future. Gatherings around the film are an opportunity for organizations to present their actions to people sensitive to their mission purpose in the aim of encouraging them to act locally.

We have adopted a grassroots and collaborative approach: To spread our message as widely as possible, and accompany people on their own quest for meaning, we are looking for partners that share our vision.

We are open to different kinds of partnership – we have listed a few examples to get you started.

- ❖ Be an AQFM animator & suggest concrete actions beyond the film – you will be invited to animate post-screening discussions in events happening in your area. This is an opportunity for you to present your mission purpose, your projects and to encourage others to act at their level
- ❖ Online Partnership: exposure on social networks, website, newsletters etc. Share the access to the film and encourage community screenings
- ❖ Distribute the DVD and split the profits with our association
- ❖ We are open to any other proposition you might have
